Hi All,

Too many versions flying around. See attached.

Anything missing?

Okay. Thanks. Check to see if the Forestry Landslides header is still in there. Also that the excessive underlining is removed.

I have that edit and incorporated it into the final.

Thanks, Allison. That didn't bother me too much since I indicated that I only messed with the first 2 sections, which I don't believe had changed. At any rate, you helped Jayne's efforts at consolidating. Robert provided an important edit, so I'll send that around shortly as a change to this version.

Don--

I think your edits look fine. My only comment is that I think you were working on a older draft that didn't include the most recent updates to the other sections. I've added what I think is the most recent versions of those docs (landslides is the only one I'm unsure of since Alan was working on that as well).

Jayne, I've attached both clean and track changes versions.
